

FACTS AND FIGURES

Young people in Brisbane

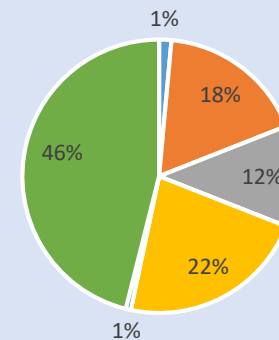

There are 5,265 people who are homeless in Brisbane on any given day according to the 2016 Census. Of these 1163 were young people who were homeless.

72% of the 1163 young people were concentrated in the Brisbane Inner City or in Brisbane South.

The data shows that most young people in Brisbane aged 12 – 24 years of age were living in severely overcrowded dwellings or in boarding houses and supported accommodation.

Where young people experiencing homelessness are living by %

- Persons living in improvised dwellings, tents, or sleeping out
- Persons in supported accommodation for the homeless
- Persons staying temporarily with other households
- Persons living in boarding houses
- Persons in other temporary lodgings
- Persons living in 'severely' crowded dwellings

Contributing to UN Development Goal: Sustainable cities and communities