

FACTS AND FIGURES

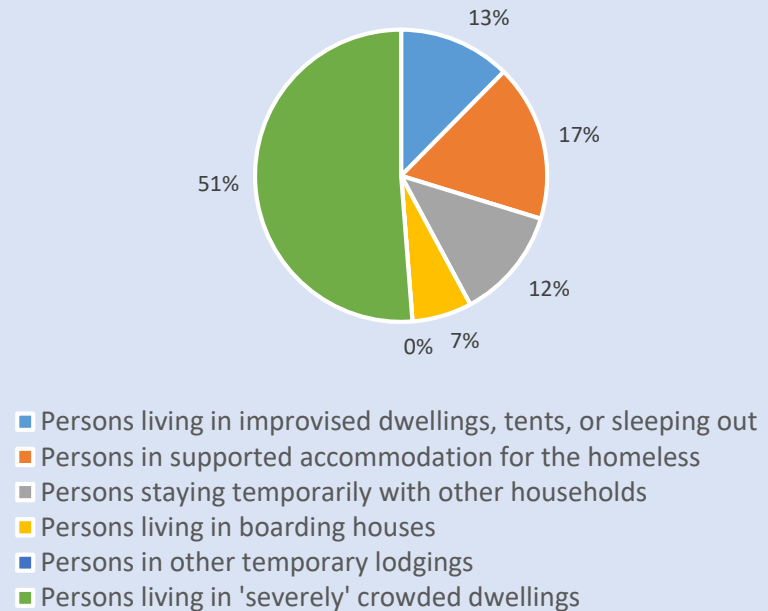

Young people in Central Queensland Region

There are 929 people who experience homelessness in the Central Queensland Region on any given day according to the 2016 Census. Of these 126 were young people, accounting for roughly 14% of the total homeless population. Of those young people, 42% identified as Aboriginal, Torres Strait Islander or both.

The majority of homeless were concentrated in Rockhampton and a smaller concentration in Gladstone.

Where young people experiencing homelessness are living by %

The data shows that most young people in the Central Queensland Region aged 12 – 24 years of age were in severely overcrowded dwellings.

Contributing to UN Development Goal: Sustainable cities and communities