

Platform 1225 Program

Date: Friday 5 April 2019

Location: Royal on the Park

Timing	Topic
8:30am	Arrival Coffee, Registration	Ballroom Foyer and Pavilion
9:00am	Welcome to Country	MC – Kat Davidson Derek Oram – Welcome to Country & Digeridoo performance
9.20am	Ministers Address	Hon. Mick de Brenni - video message
	QYHC Presentation	Maria Leebeek – Executive Director
9:30am	When our rights come home – what a Human Rights Act means for Queensland	Presented by leading human rights advocate and Director of Disability Law Queensland, Aimee McVeigh
10:15am	Behind Closed Doors – From Poverty to Social Inclusion	Presented by Nikki Chenoweth, Manager for Breakthru
10.50am	Morning Tea	Enjoy a 30 minute break while you peruse our sponsor stands.
11:20am	Insights panel discussion	Insights from Young People. Panel Members: Lydia, Chase, Emilio, Sonia, Ayesha
12:20 noon	Indigenous Business Australia	Presented by Jack Reis – Team Leader of the Business Solutions program
12:35pm	Performance piece	Wayne Deininger
12:45pm	Lunch	Catering includes a buffet lunch, tea, freshly brewed coffee and soft drinks. Sponsors to display stands.
1:45pm	Homelessness and a Poverty of Ambition	Presented by Cameron Parsell, Associate Professor and UQ Development Fellow at The University of Queensland (School of Social Science)
2:30pm	Creating Connections – Foyer Community of Practice	Presented by Jasmine Lind, Coordinator for Logan Youth Foyer Support Service, and Sarah Al Maisary, Disability Support Worker for Shine Health Services. Wayne Deininger, Chairman of the leadership team at Wesley Mission Logan Youth Foyer

2:50pm	Working in Partnership to create Sustainability & Workforce Capability	Presented by Jennifer Thomas – Executive President, The Services Union
3:05pm	When the opportunity for impact is greater than you can manage alone – U-Begin:	Presented by Maria Leebeek and Cameron Cross, live from San Francisco
3:20pm	Lucky Door Prize draw
3:25pm	Performance piece	A special closing performance by Brisbane local Chang Po Ching.
3:30pm	Closing remarks	Kat Davidson

Thank you for your support. Many thanks to Royal on the Park for hosting this forum.

Silver Sponsors

Gold Sponsor

Principle Sponsor

