

YOUTH ALLY WORKSHOP

In this two-day workshop series, young people (12-25) are empowered to be allies to their peers experiencing violence. They are also provided with understanding and knowledge of consent, respectful relationships, and skills to create primary prevention of violence initiatives within their own communities.

Where:

Women's Health and Equality Queensland
433 Logan Rd, Greenslopes

When:

Thursday September 22nd and Friday
September 23rd (school holidays)
9.30-4pm

Who:

Women's Health and Equality Queensland (WHEQ) are leaders in women's health, gender equity and the primary prevention of violence in Queensland. We provide professional education, community programs and contribute to structural reform.
