Program Details

WHO ARE WE?

Chameleon Housing is a Specialist Homeless Service that provides housing support to people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness. Chameleon Housing provides an opportunity for people to take control of their lives in a supported strength based environment. We encourage and support people to assess and re assess their own goals, to begin the process for a better future.

WHO IS THIS SERVICE FOR?

Young parenting Indigenous families 18 years and above.
I CaN HOPE is an Indigenous housing program that provides supported and secure housing to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families who are either homeless or at risk of homelessness.

HOW WILL I BENEFIT?

The goal is for Indigenous families to transition into long term independent accommodation through the Department of Housing or the private rental market. The family will be provided with a fully furnished house and case management support.

WHAT SUPPORT WILL I RECEIVE?

Chameleon Housing provides case management through a high level of direct service delivery that includes:

- Initial and ongoing assessment of client needs
- Personal support
- Information, advice and referral
- Assistance to access a range of services
- Housing assistance and advocacy
- Supporting the client to establish and sustain housing
- Emotional and practical support
- Advocacy and assistance to access housing and specialist services for example, mental health, legal, budgeting and debt management and any other mainstream services
- Facilitating social contact with family and friends and forming new social networks as needed
- Facilitating access to education, volunteering, employment and leisure activities
- Facilitating transition to mainstream services and to community supports
- Follow up support to clients who have exited supported accommodation
